

A little bit of UIBE history

Uibe was founded in 1951 as the Beijing Institute of Foreign Trade. In 1960 it was designated as a “key university” by the government for its outstanding programs. In May 1997 UIBE was put under the government’s ambitious “211 program” aimed at turning about 100 Chinese universities into exceptionally high quality academic institutions in the new century. In 2000, UIBE was merged with the China

Institute of Finance and consequently reinforced its status as one of the leading academic institutions specialising in the fields of economics, business, insurance, management, finance, law, and international trade.
