University of International Business and Economics

June 5, 2009

Dear friends and partners,

Today, Professor Shi Jianjun took my place as the President of the University of International Business and Economics as I finished my second term and completed my 10-year service as UIBE's President.

With the endeavors by all its faculty, staff members and students, UIBE has over the past 10 years made many progresses. However, we couldn't get where we are without the support from our friends and partners around the world. I'd like to take this opportunity, therefore, to extend my heartfelt gratitude to you for everything you have done for setting up and strengthening the collaboration between us.

In the years to come, UIBE needs your support even more, because we still have a long way to go to realize our vision. It would be greatly appreciated, therefore, if you would give firm support to President Shi Jianjun and work together with UIBE in exploring new possibilities of collaboration and making new contributions to the world.

Best wishes.

Chen Zhunmin
